For Immediate Release

NEW LOCATION ANNOUNCED BY ALLIANCE FOR ECONOMIC SUCCESS

Manistee, Michigan – The Alliance for Economic Success (AES), Manistee County's primary economic development organization, will move to a new office location on October 13th, 2008.

The address for the new location is 1361 US 31 South, Manistee, Michigan 49660. The office will be located in "The Plaza" in Filer Township, next to the new "Peebles" retail outlet. AES hours are Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. or by appointment. The phone number for the AES is unchanged: 231-723-4325.

"We're delighted to have office space that enables us to do our job in supporting the economic well-being and quality of life in Manistee County," said Renee' Ihlenfeldt, AES Executive Director. "We appreciate the support of Kerr Development in providing quality space and Fab-Lite for equipping us with first-class office furniture within our budget limitations. We encourage everyone with an interest in the future of Manistee County to visit us at our web site or at our new office location."

Information about the AES can be obtained by going to www.allianceforeconomicsuccess.com.

The AES offices were located in the same building as the Manistee Area Chamber of Commerce at 11 Cypress Street in Manistee. The Chamber continues to be housed at that location, and the AES and Chamber will continue to work closely to support business prosperity and growth in Manistee County.
